

International Economic Security

B 1.2.5.4

Degree: bachelor

Year: 4

Semester: 8

General workload: 3 ECTS credits, 108 hours

Goals and objectives of the course

To acquire knowledge of the concept of economic security and international economic security issues.

Key didactic units

1. Definition of the economic security of the state and its development. Classification of the threats to economic security and their threshold values.
2. Levels of economic security: national, international/ global, their interdependence. Institutional framework for the international economic security.
3. Economic security issues at the international/ global levels.
4. Economic security as the basis of Russia's national security.
5. External economic aspects of Russia's national security.
6. Russian economy modernization and its international competitiveness improvement.

Place of the discipline within the curriculum

The course is an elective.

Upon completing the course, the students should:

- Know the theoretical and methodological basis of the international economic security analysis and the tools used in economic process regulation and management;
- Be able to identify and classify the threats to economic security on the national, international/global levels and to examine the efficiency of the decisions made in order to counter the threats to economic security;
- Have knowledge of the methods used to gather statistical data of the world economy status quo by examining publications of the national and international economic organizations and comprehensive knowledge needed to prepare recommendations on financial and economic process regulation.

Course structure: lectures, practicals.

Summative assessment: pass/fail examination