

Corporate Finance (an advanced course)

Degree: Master

Year: 2019/2020

Semester: spring

General workload: 4 ECTS credits, 144 hours

Goals and objectives of the course

To acquire updated knowledge of the way financial information is disclosed and interpreted; managerial decision-making skills based on the results of financial statement analysis, and corporate financial policy and strategy development skills.

Key didactic units

- Financial management functions
- Company management financial environment
- Investment appraisal
- Working capital management
- Business financing and capital structure management
- Financial risks
- Business valuation

Place of the discipline within the curriculum

This compulsory course is included into a module of disciplines that is common for the program that reflects the university field of specialization. The course is part of program 38.04.01 in Economics.

Upon completing the course, the students should:

Know:

- The fundamentals of corporate finance, financial management and financial culture;
- The role and purpose of financial management;
- Principles of business and asset valuation;

Be able to:

- Examine liquidity, financial sustainability, business operations and other aspects of company operations;
- Assess the impact the economic environment makes on the financial management;
- Appraise investment efficiently;
- Apply risk management techniques to business operations;
- Identify and assess alternative sources of business operations financing;

Have:

- Knowledge of the basic alternatives to managerial decisions and technologies used in corporate financial policy and strategy development;
- Working capital management skills;
- Skills of examining the impact made by investment decisions on the business value growth;
- Skills of managerial decision-making based on financial statement analysis.

Course structure

Lectures, practicals

Summative assessment

Examination