

Lending and Project Financing in International Business

B.1.2.2.2.1.

Degree: master

Year: 1

Semester: module 4

General workload: 3 ECTS credits, 108 hours

Goals and objectives of the course

To acquire knowledge of the international lending market, to learn how to assess project financing deals efficiency.

Key didactic units

1. International loans and international lending market;
2. The concept of project financing;
3. Specific features and the key participants of lending and project financing deals;
4. Project financing deal efficiency assessment;
5. Sources of project financing;
6. Risk management in lending and project financing deals.

Place of the discipline within the curriculum

An elective within the module that facilitates gaining in-depth knowledge of the discipline.

Upon completing the course, the students should:

Know: key types of project financing deals, project financing process participants, the way participants interact, and indicators used for project efficiency assessment.

Be able to: build a rationale behind the lending deal and project financing structuring decisions; assess the consequences of the managerial decisions associated with selection of project management scenarios; identify project efficiency indicators.

Have: knowledge of the methods used to identify project efficiency indicators.

Course structure: lectures, seminars

Summative assessment: pass/fail examination