

Global Economy Issues B 1.2.4.2.1

Degree: Bachelor

Year: 2

Semester: 4

General workload: 3 ECTS credits, 108 hours

Goals and objectives of the course

To acquire the ability to form and present financial statements when describing economic operations, incl. consolidated financial statements of groups of companies, and to interpret the data presented.

Key didactic units

1. The main global economy issues. Globalization and the impact it makes on the world economy.
2. The world population growth and aging issue.
3. The world energy and water resource issue.
4. The global food supply issue.
5. Poverty as a global issue.
6. The climate change issue and possible global warming development scenarios.
7. Sustainable development issue.
8. Assistance rendered to foreign countries and a contribution to international development.
9. Transnational companies in the world economy.
10. Position of Russia in the world economy.
11. The global economy in the middle of the 21st century.

Place of the discipline within the curriculum

The course is an elective.

Upon completing the course, the students should:

- Know the methods used in forming and presenting financial statements when describing economic operations, incl. consolidated financial statements of groups of companies;
 - Be able to: use financial statement formation and presentation methods when describing economic operations, incl. consolidated financial statements of groups of companies, and interpret the data presented;
- Have: knowledge of the financial statement formation and presentation methods used when describing economic operations, incl. consolidated financial statements of groups of companies, and the way the data presented is interpreted;

Course structure: lectures, seminars, practicals.

Summative assessment: pass/fail examination