

THE MARK CHALLENGE 8th EDITION

The international business pitching competition in the fields of luxury products and services.

The Mark Challenge is a business pitching competition organized by the International University of Monaco (IUM), open to business initiatives related to luxury products and services.

The competition aspires to:

- a) Support and showcase the next generation of entrepreneurs, who start their business ventures from all over the world,
- b) Foster innovative ideas and business concepts in the luxury fields, through creative channels to better target the HNWI and UHNWI worldwide,
- c) Develop and promote essential skills of international students and Alumni: collaborative working, critical and creative thinking, project management,
- d) Enhance the Principality of Monaco's image as a place supportive of entrepreneurial initiatives with a social or environmental impact.

The Mark Challenge has been created as an IUM internal competition for IUM Master Students in 2014. Since then, the competition has been opened to international business schools and universities developing programs in luxury management and entrepreneurship. In the last edition, 69 business schools participated in the competition, which represented 346 international students.

Since 2018, the competition is to both MBA/ Alumni, Master and bachelors' students.

1. The Mark Challenge Competitions and Awards

The Mark Challenge runs two competitions; in addition, there is a corporate challenge proposed by a Yachting Luxury brand.

- Current student Competition: open to Bachelor and Master students with an entrepreneurial spirit.
- MBA students, experienced professionals and Alumni Competition: open to former students with an entrepreneurial spirit.

For these two competitions, the selection is made in three steps:

- A first jury, composed by professors in Luxury management and business professionals select the best business concepts
- A second jury, composed by professors in Entrepreneurship and investors select the final 6 teams (3 for each category)
- The Grand Final gathers a jury who evaluates the 6 business plans selected and awards the winners. It consists in a special event held in Monaco, open to students and business professionals interested in creative ideas in luxury or in investment opportunities in related fields.

Within the Mark Challenge, specific juries will select and give the following special awards:

- o A special award for the best innovative project in Yachting – project selected and awarded by the Monaco Yachting Cluster's board
- o A special award for the best innovative project in Fashion – project selected by Fashion professionals and awarded by the Chambre Monegasque de la Mode's board.

2. The Mark Challenge’s rules and selection process

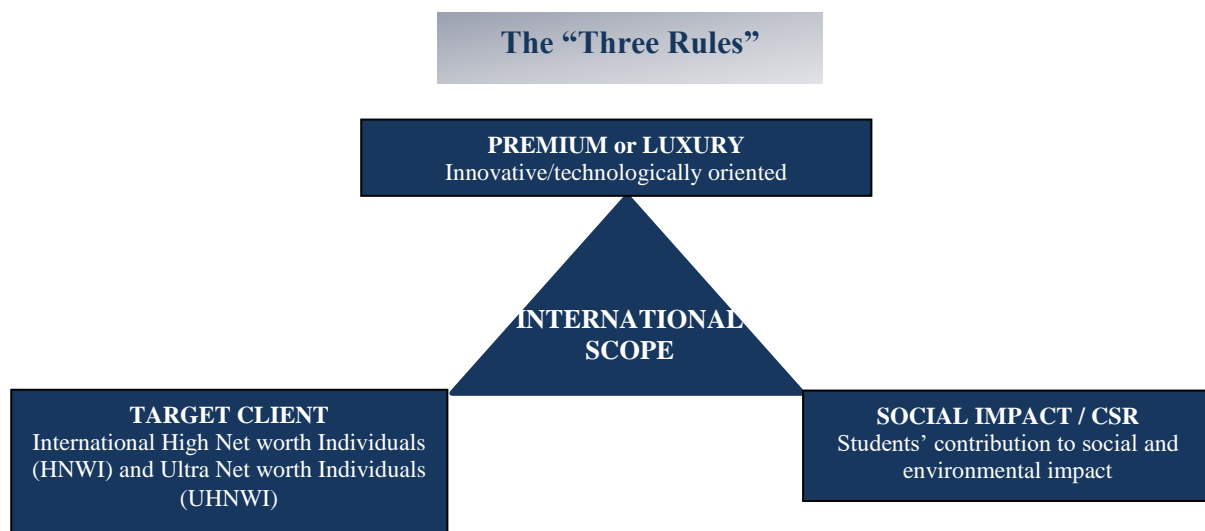

To participate in the seventh edition, teams from both categories must:

- a) Create a team composed of minimum two maximum four people. The highest expertise among the team members automatically defines the category of the team.
 People coming from the same school or from different backgrounds and locations can create teams.
 Each team can compete with different projects, in this eventuality every project has to be registered under a different name.
- b) Register the team on www.themarkchallenge.com. The Registration for the 2021 Edition will be open online from January 2021 until end of February 2021.
- c) Submit the business project in March 2021.

Dates will be updated from January.

The projects have to encompass the following characteristics:

- A premium or luxury product or service
- B2B or B2C Business Model
- “global” and not “local” potential market
- Match the “THREE rules” that follow

3. The selection process and Juries

The selection for the Mark Challenge for all categories is made in 3 steps:

- A first jury, composed by professors in Luxury management and business professionals select the best business concepts
- A second jury, composed by professors in Entrepreneurship and investors select the final 6 teams (3 for each category)
- The Grand Final gathers a jury who evaluates the 6 business plans selected and awards the winners. It consists in a special event held in Monaco, open to students and business professionals interested in creative ideas in luxury or in investment opportunities in related fields.

• Deliverables and Criteria of evaluation

Step 1: Project submission

Registered teams submit via The Mark website:

- a PPT presentation (convert to PDF)
- one-page executive summary
- one-minute video explaining their idea and concept.

The projects will be evaluated on six criteria:

- o Clear and relevant Value proposition: product/service offered; competitive advantage, meets a need (“gap analysis”)
- o Social or environmental impact
- o Thorough analysis of customers, segments and distribution channels
- o Creativity and innovation: ability to build a unique and feasible innovative project
- o The business idea needs to have an international scope

Deadline for 1st Concept report submission: March 2021

First Jury: Meeting in the second half of March 2021 with selection of 30 best projects and invitation to the selected teams to continue the competition with the submission of a complete business plan.

Step 2: Business plan submission

The 30 selected teams will have to submit via The Mark website a complete file, composed of:

- a one-minute video/Elevator pitch explaining the concept,
- one-page Executive Summary,
- a business plan containing the following elements:
 - o Company’s mission and slogan well defined
 - o Clear and relevant Value proposition
 - o Thorough analysis of customers, segments and distribution channels
 - o Relevant timeline and business development plan: operational development milestones, resources needed, management team
 - o Revenue Model and financial forecasting (for category 2 the jury expects more refined and detailed information)

A proof of concept gives an advantage. If the company already exists, it should not have been created before 2019.

Deadline for Business Plan submission: mid-April 2021

Second Jury: Meeting on the second half of April 2021 with the selection of 3 projects for each category.

Step 3: Grand Final The Mark Challenge in Monaco

The six finalists are invited to Monaco to present their business concepts. The event will be held in Monaco on May 19th at the prestigious location of the Monaco Yacht Club.

During the event, the Final Jury will select one winning team per category, and special Guests will present Prizes and Awards.

4. SPECIAL AWARDS

Since 2019, in addition to the traditional best Business Plan Award, the Jury of the grand Final presents two additional special awards:

- One for the best Business plan in Fashion
- One for the best Business plan in Yachting

The Fashion Award

All projects submitted for the seventh edition of The Mark Challenge that are related to the fashion industry will be additionally evaluated by a special jury composed by professionals working in the fashion business in April 2021.

The Yachting Award in partnership with the Monaco Yachting Cluster

For special award for the best innovative project in Yachting the selection criteria are slightly different.

- Team have to register on www.themarkchallenge.com by end of February 2021.
- All competition applicants have to post their completed file by mid-April 2021 on the Mark Challenge website

All teams have to propose an innovative business B2B or B2C concept that could be developed within a dedicated company (new start up) or within key players in the yachting industry.

The showcased innovations could be in the field of marketing, CRM, in the shipbuilding process, in the design, in the logistics concepts, in the yachting services / yacht management services, just to mention some options.

The Application file contains:

- An elevator pitch by video – 1 min
- A business concept presentation covering the 5 parts (4 to 10 pages maxi + appendixes)
 - PRODUCT or SERVICE - innovative/technologically oriented
 - TARGET CLIENT – clear evidence of a NEED / Gap Analysis and market research
 - SOCIAL/ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT
 - INTERNATIONAL SCOPE - “global” and not “local” potential market
 - FEASIBILITY – resources and timeline for development

A jury composed by members of the Monaco Yachting Cluster and other professionals in the Yachting business will select the best concept mid-April 2021.
